February 2018

FROM THE PASTOR

It is hard to believe February is here. Of course, thanks to Hallmark, it is love month. It is good to celebrate our love for one another, and I hope we express this in our families throughout the year, not just on Valentine's Day. However, it is also an opportunity to think upon God's love for each of us and consider how we might respond to such an extravagant gift.

As Christians we recognize that February usually marks the beginning of Lent. During this season, we will typically "fast" or "give something up" for a forty day period. We also gather for worship on Ash Wednesday, we refrain for forty days hearing an assurance of pardon and we take ashes placing them on our foreheads as a sign of penitence, as a reminder of our need to repent, our mortality and deep longing for God's love.

Many have asked me over the years, "Why ashes on Ash Wednesday?" Well, I do not have all the answers, nor the space to provide a detailed response, but I do know: ashes have been used throughout the Bible to express sadness, grief and a desire to "turn" or "give" one's self to God. Tamar was raped by her half-brother, and then responded by sprinkling ashes on her head, ripping her robes and weeping (2 Samuel 13:19). Job says to God, "My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You. Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes" (Job 42:5-6). Repentance is on the heart of the prophet Jeremiah as he calls the people to turn their lives back to God. "O daughter of my people, gird on sackcloth, roll in the ashes" (Jeremiah 6:26).

There are other examples found in the Bible, just to name a few: Numbers 19:9, 19:17, Jonah 3:6, Esther 4:1, and Hebrews 9:13. Jesus speaks concerning ashes in Matthew 11:21 and Luke 10:13: "If the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago (sitting) in sackcloth and ashes."

Why ashes? One response: An outward symbol of an inward desire to orient one's life around the things of God, all the while looking towards Easter, The Open Tomb and the hope found for all humans in the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

I hope you will make plans to attend our Ash Wednesday service on February 14, 2018, at 6:30 in the evening. Our friends and choir from the Santee Presbyterian Church will be joining us; you may even want to invite someone to come with you as we mark the beginning of Lent.

Shalom, Pastor Darren

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4

The youth will be raising money for the Souper Bowl of Caring through a soup lunch after church on Sunday, February 4. The money received will benefit Into The Mouths of Babes/The Filling Station, which feeds needy children from District 5 every weekend. These are children who would not have enough food to eat if it were not for this worthy organization. Last year we raised $1757, and our goal this year is $2000!

We are also taking donations of nonperishable food items for the Salvation Army. The collection will run through February 11, and food can be left in the grocery buggy in the Centre lobby. Please remember to check the expiration date of the items.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY TO BEGIN FEBRUARY 5TH

A women's Bible Study entitled "Kingdom Woman" will begin Monday, February 5, at 6:00 p.m. at the home of Gaye Lanier (1129 Moore Road). This six-week study by Tony Evans and Crystal Evans Hurst will be led by Gaye Lanier with Suzanna Crabb assisting. This group is limited to 20 people; plan for an hour and a half for this study. Book and study guide will be available on the first night of the study at a cost of $20. Sign-up by emailing Suzanna Crabb at suzannacrabb@gmail.com.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

LIVING FAITHFULLY
BELIEVING

SERVING BOLDLY
DOING

CELEBRATING GOD'S LOVE

As I type this, we have a congregational meeting scheduled for the last Sunday in January and one purpose is to elect an Officer Nominating Committee. Have you ever thought about how much the folks we elect to this committee influence the direction of our church? They meet and prayerfully nominate the future officers, which gives them a lot of responsibility. We, also, have an opportunity to suggest folks to be deacons and elders. How do you decide on someone to nominate?

What makes a good Christian leader? In his book, In The Name of Jesus, Henry Nouwen says, "What makes a leader worthy to follow? Relevance? Intelligence? Vision? All of that misses the point. Instead: why don't we follow 'people with an ardent desire to dwell in God's presence, to listen to God's voice, to look at God's beauty, to touch God's incarnate Word and to taste fully God's infinite goodness?'"

The Bible has passages about elders and deacons. Maybe the most familiar is in 1 Timothy 3: 1-12 where we find such words as: "above reproach, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome and manages own family well and sees that children obey him with respect" and the list goes on and on. Another reference is Titus 1:5-9.

When you think about the requirements, does someone come to mind? How about you? Is God calling you to serve as an officer at First Presbyterian? Or were you thinking, "I am not qualified" or "Who could possibly meet all those requirements?" Remember, all of us "fall short..." Romans 3:23 but "If the Lord delights in a man's way, He makes his steps firm, though he stumble, he will not fall for the Lord upholds him with His hand." Psalm 37:23 or "Cast your cares on the Lord and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous fall." Psalm 55:22.

Maybe you were thinking that there are others "more qualified than I." In God's kingdom, we are all equal. Christ is the teacher of us all and He loves us all equally. He never leaves us and Biblical history tells us God uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things. He qualifies those He calls. Sometimes He calls us to lead and other times He calls us to serve by following. We must all follow Him humbly, looking to Him first. So, prayerfully consider what God is calling you to do with this opportunity. And do it with confidence knowing God is always with us.

PRAYER: Lord, help us be the leaders or followers you would have us be. Help us follow those leaders you have chosen as they follow you.

CHALLENGE: Look for the opportunity to lead and humbly follow the leader who is following God's will and experience the peace and joy that only comes from God.

Serving together,
Kaye
